

MEDIA RELEASE

OFFICE OF COUNCILMEMBER BENJAMIN HUESO

252- Corridor Pedestrian Bridge links residents of Southcrest and Shelltown

Date: September 26, 2007

Contact: Raquel Marquez Maden
Phone: (619) 236-6688
Cell: (619) 841-4007

WHEN: Thursday, September 27th, 2007- 10:00 a.m.

WHAT: The 252 Corridor Pedestrian Bridge over Chollas Creek at Dorothy Petway Neighborhood Park will open this Thursday. This 110-foot pedestrian bridge links existing Dorothy Petway Neighborhood Park with the future state-of-the-art 252 Corridor Neighborhood Park. This bridge will greatly aid the pedestrian traffic between the two adjacent communities of Southcrest and Shelltown as well as bridge a contiguous 8.5 acre green belt to Southeastern San Diego

WHO: Councilmember Ben Hueso, Southeastern Development Corporation, City of San Diego Park and Recreation Department, St. Jude's Organizing Project

WHERE: Event parking is located at Dorothy Petway Neighborhood Park at 1375 Rigel Street with the event being located at the south end of the park

#